

her Led and Ridden ANSA classes and went onto win Reserve ridden ANSA. Marena Outback won Champion Show Hunter Galloway. Way to go "Dusty". And last but not least, Keeley made her Show debut, riding Grace in the Tiny Tots for a Pink place ribbon. "Well done Keeley, Love You", Mum.

St Ives - We finished our Shows for this season on a very good note with Georgia Coffey winning Champion Rider at St Ives as well as several led and ridden class with their two ponies, Flare and Quest. Alexia Coffey also did extremely well with second in the Child's pony on Grace. Nell Evans Marena Macquarie was sashed Champion Hack, while Will Evans rode Marena Heritage to Reserve Champion Show Hunter Hack. Janet Timmis won the led mare with her lovely pony Allengreen Delight and then rode her in her ridden classes with calm confidence. It is a triumph for Janet who has stuck with her lessons to achieve this level of riding. It was great to have Nikki Mellross ride Marena Outback to win his Open Show Hunter class. Nikki also helped with the warming up and preparation of the horses for me. And a big Thank You to Stacey, Nikki's sister for her help and assistance in every way. You're a Champ Stace! It was nice to see Olivia Salt and her mum Jillian and friend Peter there to see our team compete. Thanks for your support guys.
